On December 27, 2023, Mr. Johnson was issued a summons from Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Within the summons, Mr. Johnson is charged with N.J.S. 2C:20-3A Theft of Property, a disorderly person offense.

The summons describes a theft of various items from 278 Eleanor Terrace in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. This address is a rooming house with numerous other residents, one of whom is Mr. Johnson's girlfriend. The stolen items include Nike shoes, plants, board games, metal cabinets, HDMI cables, a dog's urn with ashes, plushies, and fidgets.

This matter is pending in Municipal Court.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On January 8, 2024, the undersigned spoke with Detective Scott Cairns, Cherry Hill Police Department. Detective Cairns indicated that the alleged victim in the matter described in Violation #1 is unreliable and has changed their story on who stole their belongings numerous times. Detective Cairns stated that there is no evidence outside of the alleged victim's accusation that Mr. Johnson was involved in the theft. Detective Cairns also stated that the alleged victim contacted the Cherry Hill Police Department on January 7, 2024, attempting to withdraw their complaint.

The Probation Office seeks only to notify the Court of this matter and for no other formal court action to be taken at this time. The Probation Office will monitor the case and notify the Court if any further action is needed.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
